The challenge of change

I once had a colleague who had spent much of her life moving from place to place because of her husband's job. When he left the army and they could finally put down roots she found it quite unsettling. Moving house was such a feature of her life that staying put became a serious challenge to her.

For most of us, however, it isn't maintaining the status quo that is the challenge, but change. The challenge of change was something that marked many Bible characters, for some this even involved changing their names; Abram becomes Abraham, Simon becomes Peter, Saul becomes Paul, but more frequently an encounter with God led people to change their lifestyle. Abram journeyed without a homeland; Jonah changed from a person who judged others to one who shared the message of God's forgiveness; Samuel developed from a young man who didn't recognise God's voice into a prophet who confidently identified the inner voice of God.

Jesus was himself a huge challenge to the people of his day. An obscure carpenter emerged from a backwater town to challenge both the religious leaders of the day and an oppressed populace. His challenge to them was to receive the love of God expressed in word and deed. Some welcomed his call and gave up their jobs and the security of the familiar to follow him, others welcomed his message into their inner beings and allowed his love to transform their lives, and some took what he offered and went on their way, apparently unchanged by their encounter.

Sue Phillips writes...

Sometimes we are challenged by enforced changes, the unexpected death of a loved one, a diagnosis that stops us in our tracks, or the joyful yet turbulent change brought into our life by a new-born baby. Whether the change is welcome or unwelcome the reality is that there is no going back. The challenge is to allow ourselves to be transformed, to become something new. An image used by St Paul to describe those whose lives have been transformed through meeting with Jesus is that of becoming a new kind of person, making a completely fresh start, with the old life left behind and a new life, lived in close relationship with God, replacing what has been in the past. That is a really radical change, an inner transformation that goes on and on...., no room for boredom, no need to keep on moving house, instead an ongoing challenge to live a life listening to God and trying to follow.

Last month at St Laurence's we made a New Year's resolution:

'As a church, we resolve to spend more time listening to God and talking to him, so that we recognise when He asks us to do something, and we are ready to do it'.

That's a resolution to be ready to change, in the way we pray, in the way we listen and in the way we respond. Why not try it for yourself? It may lead you to new ways of listening and new ways of being. I'm pretty sure it won't lead to boredom. As a modern hymn written by John Bell of the Iona community puts it 'Lord your summons echoes true, when you but call my name, let me turn and follow you and never be the same....in your company I'll go where your love and footsteps show, thus I'll move and live and grow in you and you in me'.

Christmas Thanks

Mick Fletcher writes...

All at the church would like to give their Christmas thanks to all those who given up their time and skills to help make Christmas special for us all.

To Lorena and Colin Bennett for their donation of the Christmas tree, to Tim for transporting the tree to the Church, to Gareth, Tim, Dave and Jim for their help in erecting the tree, to Lynda for dressing the trees.

To Richard for the Christmas without the tinsel, to all involved in the Nine lessons and Carols. For all those who helped with the Christmas Nativity, Steve controlling the lighting, Mark on the sound desk, Tom behind the scenes with the projection.

Especially then the children who were all great, their parents for helping with the children's lines and costumes, and lastly to Lysandra who worked tirelessly in all aspects of the play.

Lastly to everyone who helped clean and tidy everything away, thanks to Gareth, Steve, James, Tom, Sally, Lynda and Charlotte.

Finally all the ladies for their skill in their arranging of the Christmas flowers, thank you Ann. If I have missed anyone please forgive me. God bless.

Alvechurch WI

Pam Horsfield writes...

Our January meeting began with time thinking about the loss of a very special member, Lorna Sage, who had been in our WI for around 70 years. She had been a witty, amusing and fun filled person who lived life to the full and gave pleasure to many. Members recalled memories of incidents and sayings with Lorna and most comments left us smiling. What an epitaph!

Julie, our president, then welcomed our speaker, visitors and members and wished several a happy birthday for this month.

This month we have a 'Dates for Diary' list as there are several workshops and events that we can go to, organised by County. We can also go to our local Group Meeting at Hollywood in March, and hear Graham Walton talk in Pershore in April about his life in a house with so many daughters.

Our own speaker was Dr Doug Richards talking on 'Running Hot and Cold'. He was excellent. He spoke of how his interest in running developed into a desire to run marathons in every continent in the world. It's taken him to so many interesting places where he's met fascinating people. His talk links with his really good slide show and many members said how much they enjoyed his company.

Next month our meeting will be on Monday February 12th at 7:30pm in the Village Hall, when our speaker will be a person from Tesco talking on food waste. Visitors are always welcome to our meetings.

Also in February, having cancelled our Christmas Party due to heavy snow last month, we're now looking forward to a Valentine/Friendship Party on Monday the 19th at Barnt Green Cricket Club with Nick Jones as our friendly musical entertainer.

Rowney Green Horticultural Society

Lindsay Smith writes...

ROWNEY GREEN HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY meets at The Village Hall on the second Thursday each month at 7.30pm.

The meeting on 8th February our guest speaker will be Simon Gulliver, a gardens consultant with the National Trust and his subject will be "Easy Care Garden Plants". Guests are always welcome - £3.50 including refreshments. For more information please contact Lindsay Smith on 01527 592874.

Alvechurch Historical Society

Hilary Taylor writes...

The first meeting of the New Year will be held on Monday 5th February 2018. This will be the AGM, followed by Members' Memorabilia. Our 2018 programme of illustrated talks begins on Monday 5th March. Members are reminded that the date of our party evening is Monday 19th March, with the usual mix of food, tombola and quiz. Tickets will be available at the AGM.

Our meetings are held on the first Monday of the month, at 7.45pm, in the museum hut on School Lane. Parking is available behind the Catholic Church, with their kind permission. Visitors are always welcome, just come along, or contact our chairman, Anne Humphries on 0121 445 5995.

Hillside at Alvechurch WI

Cathy Taylor writes...

We started the New Year with an interesting and informative talk about Food Banks. Peter Evans explained how the Food Bank had been set up and how it is run. He gave us compelling statistics on the numbers of people who are helped and the need for a wide range of volunteers to maintain the service. Donations of food and money are vital to enable the service to help the wide variety of people who are referred to the Food Bank.

We had about 20 minutes to put in our bids for the Silent Auction. Refreshments including delicious cakes were served. We had time to chat before we collected the items from the auction which we had won.

Future Events

7th February Christmas Party and meal 7 for 7.30pm at Barnt Green Cricket Club. This party had to be postponed because of bad weather in December.

Coffee and Cake at Willowbrook Garden Centre, date and time will be notified.

1st March Visit to Birmingham Back to Backs.

7th March Meeting and speaker Alan Thornton 'A Day in the Life of a Seaside Hotelier' at 7.30pm. Visitors welcome at the Ark refreshments including delicious cakes will be served.

Letter from Archdeacon of Dudley

Do you, like me, love to see people of all ages growing in faith and enjoying the love of God?

One of our four priorities within the Kingdom People vision is to increase our engagement with children, young people and their families across the diocese. Our newly formed team of Calling Young Disciples Mission Enablers are already having an impact in their host parishes and further afield. We now have six, working under the leadership of Project Director Ruth Walker, the final two having started in January.

I have been greatly encouraged to hear stories emerging as this creative team build relationships with congregations and both equip them, and help them to think differently!

Adam, for example, tells of how Messy Church is developing parish-wide as resources and talents are pooled and how it's being increasingly seen as an additional congregation rather than something to feed into the 9.30 am service.

Anne, Helen and Amy have enthused about the willingness to try something new from people who haven't been on the radar of clergy, people who have had a 'holy unrest'. The introduction of a Mission Enabler to poke and shake things up has helped to revive the fire in people. They have had 'God moments', when children, young people and adults have spoken about God and faith, and there has been a strong sense of God preparing the way in the places where they're allocated. They have seen evidence of where people have been working beneath the surface to progress the Kingdom People ethos and are now ready and willing to move with the tide.

Alongside the work of this team, as well as that of our Youth Officer, Simon and Children's Officer, Emma, we also had the privilege of a day's training from Lucy Moore on how to keep the discipleship focus of Messy Church in November. Nearly a hundred people were inspired and enthused to take their Messy Churches to the next level, and from some of the tweets I saw leading up to Christmas, this had excellent results.

I long to see churches across the diocese truly engaging with all ages effectively – our churches need to be multi-generational if they are to reflect the welcome of God's kingdom. I am looking forward to many more encouraging stories as we intentionally focus on this, and hope that all those families who packed out our special Christmas services will be invited back for other events soon. Please join me in praying for the work of the Calling Young Disciples Team, and our Diocesan Youth and Children's Officers, giving thanks for seeds sown, green shoots appearing, and the promise of more to come. I am sure we have an exciting year ahead!

“Les Miserables “: the Ecumenical Lent course for 2018

CTARG (Churches Together in Alvechurch and Rowney Green) are arranging another series of Ecumenical Lent Housegroups, beginning from Ash Wednesday on 14 February. Everyone is welcome to whichever group meets at the most convenient time for them.

This year we are using a course based on the film, “Les Miserables“, an epic musical drama (2012) which is based on the musical of the same name which is in turn based on the 1862 French novel by Victor Hugo.

For those who may wish to join one of the groups, there is an opportunity to see a showing of the film in its entirety at Alvechurch Baptist Church on Friday 9 February at 7.30pm.

The groups are listed below. Please choose a group and then contact the leader of that group to tell them of your interest and to check details:

Churchyard News - 19th Century Memorials Needing Attention

As highlighted in the November Grapevine, earlier this year St Laurence had a quinquennial inspection (QI) by the church architect, of both church fabric and churchyard. The Parochial Church Council has now reviewed the detail of that inspection and, in terms of the churchyard, carried out a safety inspection of a number of memorials. The following 19th century memorials were identified as needing attention:

1. Joseph King 1871

2. John Manghan and Mary Elizabeth Tomson 1800s, (various dates) and adjoining grave next to path

Maintenance of memorials is first and foremost the responsibility of families, and so we would encourage any descendants (or anyone who is in touch with descendants) to contact the church office 0121 447 7955 or by email to - stlaurencealvechurch@yahoo.co.uk as soon as possible. If no descendants make contact by the end of March 2018, the church will need to take sole responsibility for making the memorials safe, after obtaining permission from the Diocese of Worcester.

If any memorials become acutely unsafe, the church reserves the right to take remedial action to ensure the safety of visitors and the public.

Flowers for February 2018

	4 February	11 February	18 February	25 February
Sanctuary	Monica Clarke	Virginia Davis		Lent No Flowers
Lady Chapel	Monica Clarke	Virginia Davis		Lent No Flowers
In memory of	her father Felix Ward	her mother Mrs. Catley

I do hope you all enjoyed and appreciated the Christmas flowers. My thanks are due to Elizabeth Clement and Helen Jones for helping me. We worked very hard and even though I fell down from the pulpit we still enjoyed a coffee and stollen afterwards!

We are now entering the period of Lent when traditionally we don't have flowers in church until Easter Day which, this year is on 2nd April.
